The date is October 9, 2023. time is approximately 12:12 p.m., and this is the second day of the interview with Joseph R. Biden.

MR. BAUER: Good morning, Rob, and Marc, and 5

Yesterday in the course of an exchange about types company.

7 of presentations of documents, some, you know, cover sheets,

8 bold, big lettering; others smaller print, there was some

9 question that the President would like to address about just

10 how he sees -- whether there were any meaningful differences

11 between these types of documents and the way that he handled

12 them. And so I'm just going to let the President speak to 13 Or he would like to speak to that issue. that issue.

14 PRESIDENT BIDEN: (Laughs) The idea -- I want to 15 make clear that I didn't keep anything that wasn't -- I

16 thought was classified. And so the fact that I said I gave 17 back all the stuff that had borders on it and the rest. I found anything else that was classified, code word, you 18 know, the classification categories, I gave that back, too, or I didn't see it. One of the two. That's all.

MR. BAUER: That's it.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I quess --

MR. BAUER: (Indiscernible 0:01:19.6)

MR. KRICKBAUM: Thank you for clarifying that.

don't have any follow-up questions on that specific point

2 MR. KRICKBAUM: -- right now.

MR. HUR: I just had one follow-up clarifying question on that clarification, Mr. President. And for the record, I should say that everyone that was in the room yesterday, is in the room today, I think.

So when you say you gave everything back in the clarification you provided a minute ago, when -- like, what time period are you (indiscernible 0:01:48.0) --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Seven twenty-eight on such and -- (indiscernible 0:01:48.3).

(Laughter)

MR. HUR: Well, sir, I'm asking whether you --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Whatever I ran across when I was out of office.

MR. HUR: -- whether that was your practice when you were Vice President?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah, when I was Vice President.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Or at the end of your Vice Presidency?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, when I was Vice President I gave back everything that I no longer had a need to look at, and that was classified. (Indiscernible 0:02:08.1) Top Secret or all those classifications. The question I --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- thought you were asking me was when I was out of office, when I was at the Penn Biden Center teaching, before I got elected President, after I was out of office, what did I do with any document that I saw that was classified, that met the classification Top Secret, et cetera, code word, et cetera. Whenever that occurred I just gave that back to the staff or left it on a desk to be taken back, but I didn't keep any of those things.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And you said whenever that occurred, when you found classified documents --

MR. BAUER: I'm sorry, just for the record, I think he said if he had found.

MR. KRICKBAUM: If he had found.

MR. BAUER: He's not describing a regular practice of returning documents that he found.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Were there occasions, Mr.

President, after you were Vice President, when you were teaching at Penn, doing all the different things you were doing after your Vice Presidency, were there any occasions where you found documents with classification markings?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Only ones I recall were the ones that hadn't been written on. You know, I don't recall having, having, in my possession, something that was code word or highly classified that was in the small print --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- that occurs. I don't remember that.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So it sounds like -- I want to make sure I understand -- there were occasions where you found, after the Vice -- after the Vice Presidency, documents that had any classification markings at all. That's really my question.

MR. BAUER: I'm sorry, could you repeat the question?

MR. KRICKBAUM: Yes.

MR. BAUER: Because I didn't understand that.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Were -- was there ever a time, after you were Vice President, before you were elected President, that you found documents with any classification markings on them at all?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I think there was a notebook. I don't remember if it had marked -- you know, that red marker on it. Was that when I was Vice President or not Vice President, that I returned? One of my staff guys, I -- I don't recall ever keeping anything at all for my personal use, as a professor at Penn, for any reason, that was marked -- that had a government classification on it.

MR. KRICKBAUM: It sounds like there may have been at least one occasion where you found something, I think --

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- you described it as maybe a notebook --

You guys described to me my PRESIDENT BIDEN: returning a notebook to one of my staff people that had classification --

MR. BAUER: You mean documents like that that had been inserted into a notebook?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, no. Didn't you guys tell me that there was a, a series of papers stapled together that had red border on them? And it said Top Secret or Classified, that I gave to DOJ or somebody to return.

In your post-Vice Presidential period? MR. BAUER: PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't remember what period it was. Anyway --

> MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: But the point is I never kept anything when I wasn't Vice President or President that, in fact, was classified document to be used by me for any reason.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So that's an important point and we understand that point that you just made. What I'm trying to understand is, even if you didn't keep it, did you ever find it. And what I'm asking is did you ever find --

[0:05:45.5] 1 MR. KRICKBAUM: -- anything that had classified 2 markings after you were Vice President? 3 PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't recall finding anything 4 after I was Vice President that had classified markings on 5 6 it. 7 MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. You mentioned a minute ago, 8 there may have been an incident with 9 PRESIDENT BIDEN: Didn't somebody tell me that 10 there was a notebook that had markings on it that had a DOJ 11 binder that I returned? Didn't say that or 12 somebody say that on my staff? 13 MR. BAUER: It was, it was DOJ 14 PRESIDENT BIDEN: DOJ 15 staff member. Was that when I was Vice President, or after? 16 MR. BAUER: After. 17 PRESIDENT BIDEN: It was after I was Vice President. I found a book -- I found paper that had that 18 19 red marking on it. I gave it to this kid who was working DOJ , and I said return it. That's 20 for me named 21 what I was referring to. 22 Do you remember that or you're MR. KRICKBAUM: 23 being told --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, I just remember being told that.

[0:06:46.0]

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. So if you don't remember it, I take it you don't, you don't remember when it happened after your Vice Presidency, is that right?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, I guess you guys interviewed this kid DOJ . Ask him.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And do you remember -- I take it also you don't remember anything about what was in the classified document?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, I don't.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Do you remember anything about where you were --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No.

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- when you found it? Okay. I'm just pausing to see if I have any other questions about that subject. Were there -- are there any other occasions,

Mr. President, when you found classified -- documents with classification markings after you were Vice President? I just want to make sure that I'm covering --

MR. BAUER: Repeat the question, I'm sorry.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Yes. Were there any other occasions after you were Vice President that you found documents with classification markings on them?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: When I was no longer Vice President; before I was President?

FREE STATE REPORTING, INC. Court Reporting Transcription D.C. Area 301-261-1902

Basically, yes.

[0:07:38.9]

MR: KRICKBAUM: Yes, that's right.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't recall any.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

MR. HUR: And just one follow-up. It seems to me that part of what you were trying to get across in your clarification statement this morning out of the gate was you're trying to draw a distinction between on the one hand cover sheets with big lettering --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: (Indiscernible 0:07:58.1)

MR. HUR: -- just let me finish my question, sir.

And red color borders, things like that, on the one hand.

And on the other hand, smaller letter classification markings on documents. Was that the intent you were trying to draw between those two types of classification markings?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah.

MR. HUR: Okay. And so now that I understand that clearly, is what you were trying to clarify that you may have seen, after the end of your Vice Presidency, documents with the first kind of classification markings, the big letter ones with the color borders, but, but you don't recall seeing documents with the classification markings of the second kind that were small?

MR. BAUER: I'm sorry, I'm confused. I don't think that was his answer.

1 [0:08:50.4]

MR. LAUFMAN: No, that's not it.

MR. BAUER: That was not his answer.

MR. HUR: Okay. Well, then what is --

MR. LAUFMAN: He said he didn't recall seeing them, documents with any classification markings after he left the Vice Presidency.

MR. HUR: Except --

MR. LAUFMAN: Whether they had cover sheets or they were classified documents with smaller headers and footers behind the cover sheet, he has no specific recollection of seeing those documents after he left office.

MR. HUR: Okay. And the reason he's --

MR. LAUFMAN: Is that correct, Mr. President?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yes.

MR. HUR: And the reason he's mentioning the part about the binder that he returned is because he was told that, not because he has an independent recollection?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I know that anything I found that had -- when it was overwhelmingly clear that it was classified, I returned. If you ask me how many times I did that; I don't know. But I did not keep anything that was marked -- that was clearly marked having been handed to me when I was Vice President. That's the only point I was trying to make.

[0:09:48.6]

MR. KRICKBAUM: Yeah, and I think, Mr. President, you are making a distinction between something that was clearly marked, that's what you just said -- it seems as if you're saying it's possible that there was something perhaps that was unclearly marked. And I think we're just trying to understand that. So let me ask a specific question.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yes.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Were there any occasions when you found documents that had classification markings in small print after you were Vice President?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, but if I did I would have returned them as well.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay, that's helpful. I just — we wanted to make sure we weren't misunderstanding the big letters versus small letters.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, no, I --

MR. KRICKBAUM: So thank you. Okay. Anything else on that?

MR. HUR: No.

MR. KRICKBAUM: All right. So, Mr. President, when we spoke yesterday, Mr. Hur showed you some photographs and there was one document in particular that you seemed curious about so I thought we would start with that one. So if you grab binder 2, and flip to that -- just that very --

Not -- not intentionally, but where the judgments were off and why it would be so much problem for him. And I spent a lot of time sitting down -- I think it was Thanksgiving Day -- it was around Thanksgiving that I wrote this, up in Nantucket.

MR. KRICKBAUM: If you look at page 22, the date is --

MR. BAUER: I just want to -- again, just so in the future as we move through this, you know that we've raised the question before about unnecessarily or without clear linkage to the question of the location of classified documents, probing the President on highly confidential information he provided to the former President 44 or to any senior members of the administration. So we want to be helpful and if you could just draw that connection, it's going to be a lot easier for the President to feel comfortable describing confidential advice that he provided.

anything that was typed or in typed form, and this is,
Embassy Kabul, subject Helmand views U.S. Troops -- I did not write that document. So I'm not sure why it was part of a handwritten document I wrote to the President, other than when I got to him, they dug up other information that was similar to that, what I was recommending. But I don't recall the -- I -- that wasn't from my hand. This handwritten stuff was from my hand, giving him information I thought no one else was giving him, I thought it was --

[0:01:15.9]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- critical that he get to change his position on what he was likely to do based on the advice he'd been given thus far.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Understood.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: So to me it was very confidential, because I did not want to embarrass the President. I also did not want to get into a -- and --

I'll just tell you one thing, it has nothing to do with the investigation, you'll understand why this is sensitive. The President thought that I knew a lot more about Afghanistan than he did and other members of the administration. He knew I had a real difference with the key foreign policy types, particularly — whether it was Eikenberry or whether it was — anyway.

And he was looking for me to make my case as strong as I could, without him having to ask for it or being associated with it, because his concern in this period was he didn't have overwhelming foreign policy experience, and how could he take on the most premier members of the foreign policy establishment in his administration. Quite a few that said, go, do this. So he was looking for me to make the strongest case I could. So I'd be the guy that'd basically take the heat, which I was prepared to do because I knew as much about it as they did. That's the context in which --

FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

| [0:03:14.1]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- this was happening. It's like if you had a junior prosecutor that didn't want you to be embarrassed, knew you'd never handled a particular circumstance, he or she had done this extensively. You don't want to take on the Attorney General on the issue. But he or she knew a lot about it, so you'd look at him and say what do you got, and make the strongest case possible why the Attorney General was wrong, or your US Attorney, whoever was your boss.

That was the context. And that's why I did not -ordinarily if I did a memo this long, it would be disseminated, go to him, go to his staff, go to -- this went straight to him; nobody else.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Was it common for you to write a 20-page --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No.

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- memo by hand?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: First time -- first and only time I ever did it.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And by the way if I tried to type it, it would take five times as long.

(Laughter)

MR. KRICKBAUM: I understand. Given the -FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- significance that the President attached to your views, and the thought that you put into this memo, Mr. President, obviously the decision the President made was a very important one, and I'm just curious whether after the fact you ever went back and revisited this memo to see how your advice held up?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, I knew about the advice. I knew the memo. I mean, at the time I probably could have repeated verbatim, in that time period. I knew all the points. One of the things that did come from this was we got a commitment that there would be an absolute time limit set to test the theories of the guys who wanted to go in and do more and stay longer. And so it wasn't just, you know, open-ended. We weren't going to put another 100,000 troops and we weren't going to -- and so there was a timeframe put on it, which was not what I wanted, but it was better than the open-ended, you know, go-get-em guys.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Was this memo, Mr. President, was this something that you consciously kept after your term as Vice President? Is this something that you wanted to hold onto?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't recall whether I -- did

I have this? Was this in my possession, this memo?

And it later became discussed, unrelated to my discussion. It became discussed inside the foreign policy establishment that I was recommending and -- anyway.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, I give you my word, I never thought about that.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

MR. BAUER: I'm sorry --

When I was talking about writing PRESIDENT BIDEN: the book. I -- I've been of the view, from a historical standpoint, that there are certain points in history, world history, where fundamental things change, usually technology. For example, without Gutenberg's printing press, Europe would be a very different place. Literally a different place, because the country would not have known what was happening in other countries -- other parts of the country. You know, think about a stupid idea, a notion. Nixon probably would have been President where he used the television (verbatim) where he's sweating -- I mean, sincerely. He was sweating so profusely in that debate, a lot of people thought he won the debate, but he lost the debate because of his demeanor. The -- so there's a lot of things that I think are fundamentally changing how --

And one of the things that I was of the view, that a lot has changed in terms of everything from the Internet to the way in which we communicate with one another, to -- that has fundamentally altered the ability -- I've had this discussion with the press --MR. KRICKBAUM: Mr. President, I'm sorry to interrupt you --PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, I'm sorry. That's why I wanted it. MR. KRICKBAUM: I -- I agree with --PRESIDENT BIDEN: It had nothing to do with Afghanistan. MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. That answered my question.

MR. BAUER: And Marc, just really quickly, I promise it'll be brief. I just really would like to avoid, for the purpose of a clean record, getting into speculative areas. When the President responded and said I don't recall intending to keep this memo, you then said well, you know, might you have thought it was important to keep it or whatever and he said well I guess, I could have — his recollection as I understand it is, he does not recall specifically intending to keep this memo after he left the Vice Presidency and I want that to be — I want these —

MR. KRICKBAUM: I think we should take a break at this point.

MR. LAUFMAN: Oh, come on. Come on.

MR. KRICKBAUM: We are back on the record.

Mr. President, the only other thing I wanted to ask you about this document, is about the typewritten pages that are at the back of it. So if you flip to -- on the bottom, the Bates number, it ends in 0-0-2-3.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yup.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So this is a typewritten document. It's got a confidential -- what appears to be a stamp at the top. And the top of the document indicates it's from the American -- AM Embassy Kabul. It's dated, what appears to me to be, November '09. The only question I have for you about this, Mr. President, is the confidential marking. Do you recognize that to be a classification marking?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No. I mean, confidential, doesn't want to get around. It's not in a category, I don't think, of code word, Top Secret, that kind of thing. But I don't even know where it came from.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Are you familiar with confidential as a level of classified information?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Well, if I got a document that said confidential it means -- it would mean that no one else could see it but me and you give it -- or the people working on this issue.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And are you aware that among certain categories of classified information there is Top Secret, Secret, and there's also a category of classified information called Confidential. Is that something that you are aware of, or not?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I -- yes, I was aware of it. I don't ever remember -- when I got any document that was confidential, that was meant for me to read and/or discuss with the people who sent me the memo. So...

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. We looked at this handwritten memo that you wrote. Were there any other memos or documents about Afghanistan from your time as Vice President that you kept after you were Vice President?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Not knowingly. I mean, it wasn't anything I consciously -- there may have been something that was kept in a notebook or something, but not conscious.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And what was this room used for?

You know, it was just a round table and it was just -- there was a big kitchen in this place and there was kind of an alcove in the front.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So when you, for example -- I believe you had some meetings at Chain Bridge Road when you were working with Mark Zwonitzer on the book Promise Me, Dad. Would you meet with Mark in this room or somewhere else?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I'd probably meet with him in this room or in the living room, you walk in and walk straight, because there was a nice view out the back.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Is that also on the main -- PRESIDENT BIDEN: Main floor, yeah.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. All right. So speaking of Promise Me, Dad, I think we talked a little bit about that book yesterday, but I had some more questions for you about it.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Sure.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So Mark -- as you probably know,
Mark recorded his conversations -- when you all met to talk about the book, he made recordings of those conversations and we have some of them. In some of the recordings you spoke to him about wanting to gather some materials from your time as Vice President that you could use as reference.
And you specifically talked about gathering notebooks that you had written in. Do you recall trying to collect those notebooks that you could use them when you were talking --

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- to Mark?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Not, not specifically.

But look, what I was doing, I was writing a book about how the family responded to a son we knew was dying. And so if I were -- if Beau had just gotten a new diagnosis on something, where was I? Was I in country, was I, you know -- what was I, what was I doing at the time. And this is when I was Vice President as well, because he was diagnosed when that occurred. So that's the context in which I was looking. I actually got the book, and I started I haven't seen it in a long time. And to look through it. there are connections to a certain diagnosis and where I physically was, what I, what I -- and what my thinking at the time was about what I should or shouldn't be doing really. It wasn't about -- it was more like having a calendar in front of you. You know, like, if your wife said why don't you write a book about how we met and where we met and what -- well, you'd want to know, well let me see, when did we meet, you know. I remember the day that I met in 1962, but anyway. But my point is, you know, it was more to give me context, writing about it. Because I have to -- you won't be surprised, it was a very, very, very hard book to write.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Yeah. We understand. Having --

1 | [0:08:12.6]

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- read it, that makes sense.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Well, you know, if you read it, you know, there's some references to where I was, as opposed to anything having to do with where I was. At least that's what I think about.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Do you know where your notebooks were in the time period immediately after your term as Vice President?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, but I think that what they did, they gathered up my notebooks and I think they were in drawers in this room.

MR. KRICKBAUM: In this room, in tab 13, the first-level office?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah. Well, I'm not sure if they were all in one place, but I think that's where they would mainly be because there was a -- there was a -- this -- you walk in, there was a fireplace in the middle of this room. If you went left you walked through a little hallway and you went into what was a living room, a more formal living room. But you passed a little alcove that had file drawers -- I mean, had -- I think it had bookcases and, you know, drawers beneath it. But my guess would be there or in the bookshelves. I don't know. I don't remember.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. I want to ask you -FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

[0:09:43.1]

2	MR. KRICKBAUM: Mr. President, about a meeting
3	you had with Mark in February of 2017. So you were meeting
4	to talk about things that you were working on in the course
5	of writing the book. So you had just ended your Vice
6	Presidency about a month earlier. And at least according to
7	your schedule, on February 16th of 2017 you were scheduled
8	to meet with Mark at Chain Bridge Road and he recorded the
9	meeting. And so based on his notes it appears that you
10	talked about a lot of you covered a lot of ground during
11	that conversation, including some very, you know, difficult,
12	emotional subjects, as you referenced. And then at one
13	point and I'm giving you this as context for the question
14	I'm about to ask at one point, you know, it appears from
15	the recording that you were speaking to him about meetings
16	you had as Vice President. There was a meeting about Iraq
17	that you spoke to him about. And in that meeting, according
18	to what you said to Mr. Zwonitzer, the question came up of 19	will we ever see a unified Iraq in our lifetime. And in
20	talking to that about that to Mark, you then made a
21	comparison to Afghanistan. And you told him the story of
22	the fact of the memo, the handwritten memo, that we just
23	looked at. And you said that you wrote the President the
24	memo, you told the President that the day we left
25	Afghanistan, it would be the same as the day before we

[0:11:07.5]

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- arrived. And in the course of explaining that memo about Afghanistan, you said to Mark, "I just found all the classified stuff downstairs." And so you can imagine we are curious what you meant when you said, "I just found all the classified stuff downstairs."

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't remember. And I'm not supposed to speculate, right?

MR. BAUER: Correct.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: So -- okay, well, I don't remember and it may have been -- I just don't remember.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. Do you remember telling Mark about the handwritten memo that you had written to President Obama?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I probably did. I don't remember specifically, but my guess is I may have done that.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. Do you remember telling him, "I just found all the marked classified stuff downstairs?"

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Marked?

MR. KRICKBAUM: Telling Mark? Do you remember saying that to him?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. Do you remember actually finding any classified stuff downstairs?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No. The only thing I can -FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

[0:12:37.6]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- remember is I wanted to be clear to him that I didn't want what he just heard me say about the memo to Barack, even though it wasn't a Top Secret thing (indiscernible 0:12:39.5), I didn't, I didn't want any of that mentioned, it was confidential. I didn't -- not confidential in the classification sense, but don't, don't write about that. That's off the record. That's not something I want to be talking about in the book about Beau.

MR. KRICKBAUM: At this point in time, you know, around a month or so after you left the Vice Presidency, were you still in the process of going through your stuff at CBR, to see what was packed where and where everything was?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Well, I don't specifically remember, but I can't imagine not. I mean, they just drop all these boxes in the library and boxes in the, in that — there's a hallway in the back of the garage. A lot of stuff in the garage itself, boxes piled up. And my problem was, where in the hell is all this stuff going. You know, I mean, it was just taking up a lot of room. And — but it wasn't so much I was looking for anything. It was, like, well, what do I clear out. You know, what do I get out of the way, sitting near a hallway or it's in the garage or it's in, you know, in this library. It was more in that context I can recall thinking about what was in boxes.

2 MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Not like I'm looking for something, like I'm trying to compile things. But just what'd they pack up, what's here.

MR. KRICKBAUM: I want to see if there's anything else -- any other things that you remember about this day.

And so the schedule shows that you had an appointment from 8:30 to 9 a.m. with DOJ. Do you know what that would be referring to?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah, I had -- they had operated on my shoulder and it was a workout schedule.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. And then from 10 to 11 you had a scheduling meeting at the house at CBR with Steve Ricchetti, DOJ , DOJ , and DOJ not, from that particular meeting?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, that wouldn't be unusual in the sense that they were the day-to-day people. Like, you'd see DOJ walking in, and DOJ, and DOJ. But that -- you know, just what's goin' on kind of thing. What's the day look like.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And then you had lunch at the Four Seasons Hotel at Georgetown.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I ate there all the time.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: What'd I do there at the Four Seasons? Who'd I have lunch with?

MR. KRICKBAUM: Actually, I'm not sure.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I have no idea.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Still have to figure that out.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't remember.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And is there anything that you remember about what you were doing at the house before your meeting with Mark that day, which would have been in the afternoon? It started at 3:00, according to your schedule. It could have changed based on events.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Had I already decided who I was taking to Penn with me? Had that all been settled by this time? I don't remember.

MR. KRICKBAUM: You mean which people --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah.

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- were going to work with you at Penn? I don't know the answer (indiscernible 0:15:57.0).

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't remember. Because there were discussions that were going on, like, you know, do I hire Tony to come on, do I hire so-and-so, will they provide -- how much will they pay so-and-so to do -- you know, to be a professor, that kind of thing. You know, the mechanics of what would -- what I'd be doing at Penn and who I'd be --

Because I'm out of the Vice Presidency and I'm now going to Penn, right? Had stuff been sent to Penn? This stuff's from Penn. I don't remember (indiscernible 0:16:42.0) time in.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Well --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Anyway.

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- perhaps maybe I'll ask you another question, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Sure.

MR. KRICKBAUM: You said -- well, I think we talked yesterday, in the basement of Chain Bridge Road you had the office that you used there. Is that right?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah. It was more of a combination family room, meeting room, television room, you know, staff room. I mean, it wasn't -- you know, it just -- I'm a frustrated architect and I wanted to set it up so it looked nice. And I was even talking about, do I spend the money if they'd allow me and put in a swimming pool out there kind of thing. Jill's going, what are you doing, what are you talking about, stop. And but it was in the context of making the place look nice and livable and feel like

1 | [0:17:51.2]

2 PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- home.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. And you said to Mr. Zwonitzer, I had just found all the classified stuff downstairs. What I want to try to understand, in February of 2017, are there any other places, other than Chain Bridge Road that you could have been talking about when you said that?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And I guess --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Trying to think. I had Chain

Bridge Road as a residence. I had pulled -- I'm out of the Vice President's residence, right?

MR. KRICKBAUM: Yes. You had moved out more than a month --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And all of that stuff hadn't been sent to my garage floor in Delaware, had it? Do we know?

MR. KRICKBAUM: What we know, Mr. President, is that the movers came to, to the Naval Observatory on January 7th and packed up your stuff and moved into Chain Bridge Road that same day.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Gotcha. But nothing moved to Wilmington? There's only one other residence I had, my originally, the lake -- you refer --

1 | [0:18:59.1]

MR. KRICKBAUM: Right.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: It's no lake. It's a pond, but -- okay, no, I can't think of anything -- any other place.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And I guess looking at, you know, the evidence taken together, one simple theory — and I'm just going to ask you if you have anything you want to add when I explain this theory. If the answer is no, the answer is no.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay.

MR. KRICKBAUM: One simple theory would be that when you told Mark Zwonitzer in February of 2017, and you were talking about Afghanistan, that you just found all classified stuff downstairs, what you meant was you just found all the classified documents about Afghanistan that were later found in your garage in the lake house. And so, we're trying to understand if that's what you meant or not. And I understand you've told us you don't remember, but our question is really if there's anything else —— any other memory or thought you have on this that you want to share with us as we try to make sense of the evidence.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Other than, only thing I can think of is I was referring to him that I knew of the President -- the memo I wrote to the President, I didn't want that in use for any reason.

1 [0:20:17.0]

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. And I think we covered this at the beginning of our conversation today, but -- well, actually we talked about the incident with Mr. DOJ you said you were told that you had given stuff to Mr. DOJ, but you didn't know -- you don't remember that and you didn't know what those documents were?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No. I just know anything that was so clearly marked confidential I just took and said return it, get it out of here. That's what I know. And I was telling the team that that's what I would do with it. I mean, again, they said, well, yeah, DOJ was your body guy for a while, he remembers you saying to him boom, return this.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So in February of 2017, when you had this conversation with Mark Zwonitzer, I believe that Mr. DOJ was still your body guy. I'm trying to get a sense of, if you had found classified documents at that time, what would you have done with them? Who would, who would you have given them to?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I would have given to him to give back to the -- you know, to the agency.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. Is there anyone else that you can think of that you would have --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Well, if I -- my former -FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- chief of staff was sitting talking to me, if my -- if, you know, I, I, I would hand it to them. It usually was a staff responsibility to return this stuff.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: So it wasn't like it was, you know, I'd call my chief of staff or the head of the foreign relations committee or whatever.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. I want to look at a few more documents.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Sure.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So if you could go --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: That's kind of a neat room, though, isn't it?

MR. KRICKBAUM: It's a beautiful room.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I like the sun in there, too.

MR. HUR: Marc, before you move onto in the specific documents, can I just ask a couple follow ups?

MR. KRICKBAUM: Please.

MR. HUR: So I wanted to follow up on something that you said a couple of minutes ago, Mr. President, where you were recalling the -- I think you said they gathered up the notebooks and put them someplace, referring to the Chain Bridge Road residence. And I just wanted to ask, who --

1 [0:22:23.4]

2 MR. HUR: -- would be the "they"?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, that's not what I meant.

The notebooks would have come in in a box dropped somewhere.

So there was notebooks in the hallway, the living room, all over. I mean, not notebooks, but boxes.

MR. HUR: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: So I'm going to be living there so I said, clear this place out. So what I probably did was go through and found, found book -- found boxes that had notebooks in them. I gathered the notebooks up and I put them in basically one place. And I think they were put in the library in that indentation I referenced. And -- but that's the best of my recollection.

MR. HUR: Okay, thank you.

MR. KRICKBAUM: You said that if you had found classified documents at this point in February -- if -- you would have given that to DOJ or another staff member?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah. I would have gotten rid of them. I would have gotten them back to their source.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And why?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Because what would I do? I wasn't going to keep them for anything. I had no purpose for them, and I think it would be inappropriate for me to keep clearly classified documents. Now if I had written --

MR. KRICKBAUM: And was it your understanding after you left the Vice Presidency that at least for marked classified documents that belonged to the government, that you were not authorized to have those at your house after you were Vice President? Was that your understanding?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I didn't think of it that way.

I just thought of what would I need them for and I had no authority to have them. I mean, why would I -- look, so I mean, I -- just a continuation of an eight-year habit, of returning classified information to its source. I mean, I don't think it was conscious, like oh wait a minute, I got to change my policy now here. I'm no longer Vice President.

Why would I keep them? And -- anyway.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. But I think, I think it would be helpful for us to understand -- I think with respect to your notebooks, that you wrote by hand, you view those as yours --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: They are mine.

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- and you were authorized to have them?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And every President before me -FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- has done the same exact thing.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And I'm not arguing with you about that right now, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I just want to make sure we're on the same page.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Well, I'm not meaning to address that topic right now. I just want to make sure that you're not making the same claim about a marked classified document that was created by the United States Government. You're not saying that was mine, I could have that if I wanted it.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I never made that argument. I don't know if that argument is legitimate, but I never made that argument and I never responded that way intentionally.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. That helps me understand where the line is for you. So let's look at the documents that I referenced earlier. If you could take -- go back to binder 2.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And if you turn to the second tab there, it says "Facts First" on that tab.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Understood. I'll wait for everybody to get there. I think we're mostly there. So this is what appears to be a red folder with handwriting on it. And by the way, Mr. President, the next few documents I'm going to go through with you were found in your garage at the lake house. I'm telling you that for context.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Do you recognize this folder?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No.

MR. KRICKBAUM: How about the handwriting? Is that your handwriting?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: It looks like, it looks like my handwriting.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And the phrase "Facts First," does that have any significance to you?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, I was trying to remember -I mean, when I saw that today I didn't know whether that related to something or it was just me who was saying -- I don't know. Was there a document "Facts First," I don't know.

MR. KRICKBAUM: As I said a minute ago, this folder had several documents related to Afghanistan from 2009 in it.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Do you have -- do you know anything about how this folder and those documents got into your garage?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, other than they must have been taken when I was Vice President from the Vice President's residence or the Vice President's office, to the -- where was I -- did I have the Penn office yet. I think either to the Penn office or to the residence in Wilmington. I mean, that's the only thing I can think of.

MR. KRICKBAUM: There were also documents from the Naval Observatory, or materials from the Naval Observatory, that were moved to Chain Bridge Road. Is that --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay.

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- is that your -- I'm asking actually. That's a question. Do you know that?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Well, I'm sure, I'm sure there were. I don't know -- my problem was I never knew where any of the documents or boxes were specifically coming from or who packed them. Just did I get them delivered to me. And so this is -- I'm, at this stage, in 2009, am I still Vice President?

(Indiscernible whispering 0:27:42.3).

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah, okay.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So it looks like you're --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I underline documents and that could be my writing. I can't swear to it.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. When -- to give you some context, this document was attached. There's a memo from the National Security Advisor to the President in advance of a National Security Council meeting. And this was an attachment to that memo. And so my question is, at least when you had copies of materials like that, that were your copies, did anyone else take notes on your copies of memos that you had as briefing material?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Not simultaneously, but I -- if I turned it over to my National Security Advisor to hand him, he could have put notes on it, but not likely.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. You mentioned the markings at the top. Do you -- it says Top Secret. Any of the other markings, do you recognize those or know what they refer to?

MR. BAUER: I'm sorry, what page are you on, Marc?

MR. KRICKBAUM: I'm sorry, I'm the very -- it's Bated number 18. It's the first page of this document.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Yeah. And you have referred a few times today to things that are clearly marked classified and I want to make sure I know how you're using that. As far as you are concerned, is this document clearly marked as a classified document?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yes.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. If you then flip to document B13 dash -- I'm sorry, tab B13-2.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: B13-2. Okav.

This is a couple paragraphs typed MR. KRICKBAUM: up and at the top it says notes from a meeting on September 29th, 2009, and it has a time. It indicates that it's about Afghanistan/Pakistan. For context for you --

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- Mr. President, there was a Principal's Committee meeting about Afghanistan/Pakistan on this day. And I can see that you're reading what's typed up there. Do you recognize this, sort of, vignette that's typed up as something that you recall happening during a meeting related to Afghanistan back in 2009?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Generically, I do. Look, the debate was -- let me move this -- the debate was, with McChrystal and company, that if somehow we defeated Al Qaeda and killed Bin Laden in Pakistan, we still have the same level of commitment McChrystal was asking for to defeat the Taliban in Afghanistan. The answer, the answer, the answer Intelligence, State, and Defense was yes. Okay. I don't know -- that's a question Panetta asked. So what was the question?

MR. KRICKBAUM: Do you remember this exchange that is documented here?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Not per se, but it was a generic exchange I remember. The debate related to whether or not Pakistanis were -- if we got rid of Bin Laden in Pakistan, and -- Panetta asked the question of Secretary of Defense and others. So he's asking what's his name from Texas, who was the Secretary of Defense? Gates.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Defeated Al Qaeda, kill Bin

Afghanistan. Oh, okay. The answer Intelligence, State, and Defense gave was yes. In other words, this was if, in fact,

Al Qaeda is defeated, Bin Laden is gone, would we still be making a major investment in Afghanistan? And apparently the State Department and the Defense Department both said

yes, would have the same level.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. Let's move onto B14 -PRESIDENT BIDEN: Now, were these, these notes written like they're typed like this?

MR. KRICKBAUM: They were typed like this in the folder that was found in the garage.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Do you remember anything about how, how this document was created?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Because I didn't type anything.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- it may very well be that whoever my National Security Advisor in that meeting, the small group meeting, was asked that question, since he or she recorded that.

MR. KRICKBAUM: B14-1.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yup.

MR. KRICKBAUM: So this is another typed document.

The title of it is Counterinsurgency Coin versus Counterterrorism --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yup.

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- CT strategies. I just -- if you could -- I'm not going to ask you about the substance of this document, Mr. President, I wonder if you would -- if you would look at the notes in the margins on page 2, the next page, it's the Bates number 40 -- Bates number 41, Bates number 42, and just tell me whether that's your handwriting or if you recognize it.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: It looks like my handwriting.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. And then I think that's the last document I wanted to ask you about in this folder,
Mr. President. If you could turn to the next tab, which the big blue tab is — it says Afghanistan folder. So the first page of that folder is a — it's a scan of a manila folder.

It's got handwriting on it that says Afghanistan 2009.

[0:35:30.0]

MR. KRICKBAUM: Do you recognize that folder?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: It looks like my writing.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I couldn't swear to it.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. If you go to tab B25, this is a -- it's a typed document, it has handwriting on it.

It's, it's dated November 25, 2009, and it says memorandum for the President from the Vice President. Is that your handwriting on this document as well?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: It looks like it, yeah.

MR. KRICKBAUM: All right. This says that it is a memo from -- for the President from you, and I will, I will give you for context, Mr. President, that parts of this typewritten document that you're looking at, are incorporated into the handwritten memo that you wrote to President Obama, the long one that we looked at earlier. So there are some parts --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Which came first?

MR. KRICKBAUM: This one is dated three days earlier, the typewritten one is dated three days earlier.

And so my question is just whether you recall using this memo or anything else as a resource or source material when you were writing the handwritten memo?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I'd have to take a look.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: — to speculate, but if this was — I received this before I wrote the other, it was added argument why he should listen to my argument. I'm talking about — you know, "I had a long conversation with Eikenberry, yes, I urge you to call him before you make a decision. Karl can speak for himself and he has eloquently in some of his cables, let me relay just a few things. Adding troops will not speed up the ability to train Afghans because..." et cetera. So these are criticisms of the proposal that was being made to the President by, by others in the administration wanting him to double down in Afghanistan.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Understood.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: So my guess is it probably was a partial source to what I ended up sending as well on the 28th, or whatever date it was.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay. There is only one other document I wanted to ask you about in this folder. It's B37, which is toward the back.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

MR. KRICKBAUM: And --

topic, and this is something that came up yesterday when Mr. Hur was showing you photographs of the garage at the --FREE STATE REPORTING, INC. Court Reporting Transcription D.C. Area 301-261-1902

It is --

1 [0:44:38.3]

MR. KRICKBAUM: -- lake house. You made reference to -- at some point, some materials ended up at the lake house and you referred to that as tranche 2. And we're -- we wanted to follow up and understand what you meant -- what you were referring to by tranche 2.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Tranche 2. Give me one -- I don't know. You're talking about when stuff got delivered to the garage?

MR. KRICKBAUM: I believe so.

MR. HUR: And the photo that -- in which that, that exchange occurred was --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Right.

MR. HUR: -- behind tab 7 in binder 1.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah, okay, I see.

MR. HUR: Yes, sir. So if I recall, when you saw that pile of boxes to the right of the treadmill there, I think one of the things you said --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: This was stuff that came after other stuff had already been delivered to the, to the garage. Because some of this stuff relates to construction stuff. All those fans were taken down, taken down from the

USSS

MR. HUR: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- where we had -- where we -

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- do the interviews and things. So my recollection is that there were two times that boxes relating to my office, the job I held, were delivered to the -- my garage. And most of this stuff, I think a lot of it's still sitting there, is stuff that had to do with construction and/or bringing other material from, I guess, Chain Bridge Road, whether it was furniture. This is 2021?

MR. HUR: Um-hum.

MS. COTTON: No, it's 2022.

MR. HUR: This photo was taken in 2022.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah, this is stuff after whatever was delivered from Chain Bridge Road had well been delivered. Right? I moved out of Chain Bridge Road back --

MR. HUR: Yes.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- back in 2019 or 2020, right?

MR. HUR: Yes.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: So what I was referring to in tranche 2, there were other, there were other things and the other garage door were opened on the left there. There were boxes there, too. I remember moving boxes, literally physically moving them, with help, one side to the other so I could get the Corvette in that garage on the left. But so when I was talking about tranche, maybe I didn't follow -- there was a second time things were piled up in the garage.

[0:47:37.0]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: This was not the first time and the first time was, I think, back when I moved out of either my Vice President's office, or when I moved out of the Vice President's residence, or I moved out of the Penn Biden Center, moved stuff out of the Penn Biden Center. But there was different stuff in there on both sides, I think. That's what I meant. In other words, a lot of this stuff has nothing to do with, with my being Vice President or with anything. We were just doing work on the house.

MR. HUR: Okay. That's very helpful. And can you, can you tell that by looking at these pictures from the size --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Well, I can tell that by the fans to start with. Okay?

MR. HUR: Ah, okay. And how about --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And I think, I think that one of these things is marked "careful mirror" or something on the other side.

MR. HUR: I see.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I'm not mistaken. But that thing going across, that's no file or anything. That's something to do with, either a mirror or some -- something that is furniture related, I think. But I'm not certain.

MR. HUR: Understood. Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I'm assuming there were two.

MR. HUR: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: That's my assumption. I just -I don't know when the first time --

MR. HUR: Is?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- I walked into the garage and all of a sudden there were all these boxes all over the floor. I don't remember if that was way back when I left the Vice Presidency.

MR. HUR: Yes.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Or whether it was just before -- in this timeframe.

MR. HUR: Okay.

FREE STATE REPORTING, INC. Court Reporting Transcription D.C. Area 301-261-1902

[0:49:53.4]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- hell it got there.

MR. HUR: Okay. So here's a different question that doesn't focus on timing or how things got there. Sometimes, in my own experience around the house, you know, I get a particular -- a place gets messy and then I clean it up and it looks spic and span, and then it gets messy again. So is that what happened here, where the first tranche came, stuff got dumped in your garage and you organized it, you moved it all, unpacked the boxes and it was spic and span, and then this stuff landed. Or was it not quite that stark. Was it more like well, I did some unpacking of the first batch. It wasn't all the way --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't remember unpacking anything. The thing I remember moving is just --

MR. HUR: Ah, moving.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- moving the boxes.

MR. HUR: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And by the way there's -- in there, there's two things. There's a bookcase. An old -- had nothing to do with anything. A bookcase that is against one of those -- if you look at that picture, you'll see on the

-- there's a USSS going up.

MR. HUR: Yes.

FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

[0:51:08.8]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And I think you could see it looks like there is a -- something leaning against that

MR. HUR: Yes.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I think that is a bookcase, unrelated to anything having to do with the Vice Presidency, where some of the books that were sitting around, books came back in boxes. You just took them out and stuck them there to get rid of the box. You follow me? Does that make any sense?

MR. HUR: Yes.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And so things like that. I don't, I don't know what -- and in the meantime -- I can't remember when I had these cabinets put in, on both sides of the garage, the gray cabinets.

MR. HUR: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: They're for storage and they had storage of things for paint and tools and golf clubs and things like that. And a lot of on the USSS side -- USSS side of the garage, there was a lot of my wife's crockery and vases and crystal pitchers, you know, for drinks, drink kind of thing. And we -- I needed them to store, you know, to get out of the way so they didn't get --

|| [0:52:31.1]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- broken. There was no other place to put them. And that was stuff coming from Chain Bridge Road and/or, originally, I guess, from the Vice President's residence, Chain Bridge, you know, those kinds of things.

And then there on the other side, there's a little workbench on the other -- between -- that last, on the right -- what you're looking at here, because you can see one, two, three cabinet doors up and down. And then there's an opening and there's a workbench there with a -- I think there's a vice there, and a, you know, and stuff just piled up there.

And, so, you know, and, and it may be -- I don't know this -- I don't want to speculate. Anyway. But it wasn't like the boxes were empty and taken away. It was like --

MR. HUR: They were moved.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: They were moved to make room for the Corvette. And initially what I had in there, I had the Corvette -- because in one picture, you have it on this side of the garage.

MR. HUR: Yes.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And on the other side was a tractor, a small tractor that could operate as a -- FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

mower. And it had a wagon, you know, a wagon you could hook up to it. What I ended up doing is buying from one of these garage places, you know, you go -- that could buy -- pass gas stations that are selling wood sheds and, you know, things like that. I bought a storage facility where I can drive a tractor in there and store it, and a lot of garden stuff and including -- I had in there -- what else did I put in there? Tools, shovels, all that kind of stuff. Oh, and the hard top for my Corvette is in there. And there's two doors that close. And it's really more storage. So that's why we ended up -- because we needed the space on the USSS of the garage.

MR. HUR: And that, that you were just talking about, moving things around, the big stuff for the space for the Corvette on USSS of the garage, was that before or PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't know, I can't remember.

I'm trying to think. If I can remember when the first tranche of boxes got sent to me. I have no -- no, I can't.

Maybe I should have asked some of the former staff when the hell that stuff came up and how it came up. I don't know.

But I honest to God don't remember.

MR. HUR: Okay.

after your move out of Chain Bridge Road?

1 | [0:55:31.5]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: It may have been -- and by the way, to complicate things. In the meantime, my Corvette was being worked on because I had to do that show with --

MR. KRICKBAUM: Jay Leno.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Jay Leno. Didn't have to, I wanted to do that show with Jay Leno.

(Laughter)

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And there was a kid who used to help me take care of my Corvette. Didn't work for me, but -- and -- I can get his name. And he pulled it in and out to, you know, work on the carburetor, you know, whatever, get it up to the Chevrolet dealer (indiscernible 0:56:06.1), whatever. So there was a lot of stuff going in and out, but I don't remember when the boxes came or where they came from.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Do you remember whether it was when the Corvette was coming back after the Jay Leno show? So, in other words, it goes out for Jay Leno, eventually it comes back.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Oh, no, it was, it was in and out for a bunch of reasons.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Because it drove me crazy; I wanted to drive it.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Got it. That makes sense; a beautiful car.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: And the worst part was, they said I couldn't drive it outside the driveway. It's a long driveway. So I'd get it to the bottom of the driveway, tack it up to about four grand (indiscernible 0:56:44.0) (makes car sound) (indiscernible 0:56:47.0).

(Laughter)

PRESIDENT BIDEN: You think I'm kidding; I'm not.

MR. KRICKBAUM: We believe you.

MR. HUR: I believe you. Yes.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Probably one of the best parts to being Vice President and President, I get to drive all these, you know, electric vehicles. I have. Damn, they're quick.

(Laughter)

PRESIDENT BIDEN: You know, think about this. You had one of those big 4 x 4s, the -- I think it's a Ford Bronco, whatever it is. Zero to sixty in 4 6.

MR. HUR: Yes.

MR. KRICKBAUM: Instant torque.

MR. HUR: That's fast.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah. By the way, you know how it works?

HUR: 5 hear much more about this, but I do have a few more questions to get through. 6 7 PRESIDENT BIDEN: You can take 30 seconds, but you 8 put your foot on the brake, you hit, you hit a button that's 9 in the -- and it says "launch." 10 (Laughter) 11 PRESIDENT BIDEN: You step your foot on the accelerator all the way down --12 13 MR. (Makes car sound) 17 (Laughter) 18 MR. HUR: It's on my bucket list. 19 All right. So let's -- with that, let's launch 20 into the next subject which relates to the Penn Biden 21 Center. So, I want to show you what's behind Tab 23. 22 MR. SAUBER: Which notebook? I'm sorry, Binder 1, the original binder. 23 MR. HUR: So there's a number of photos there. The first 24 25 Bates is 20221201 WFO 0021. And then 22, and then 23. FREE STATE REPORTING, INC. Court Reporting Transcription

HUR: So the first several photos ending at 7 Bates 21, 22 and 23, are one box. And then the remainder 8 behind that tab are of another box. 9 PRESIDENT BIDEN: 21, 22 and 23 are one box? 10 MR. HUR: Yes, sir. PRESIDENT BIDEN: 11 Okay. 12 MR. HUR: Okay. And then 102 onward are another 13 box. 14 PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay. MR. HUR: So these were boxes that were recovered 15 from the Penn Biden Center. 16 17 PRESIDENT BIDEN: Gotcha. MR. HUR: And I'd like you just to take a quick look 18 19 at those photographs and tell me if you recognize these files, 20 if any of them jump out to you as ones that you recall. 21 MR. BAUER: Are you on a specific page, Rob, just 22 to be clear? 23 Not right now. MR. HUR: 24 MR. BAUER: Okay. 25 MR. HUR: He can look through all six or seven --

MR. HUR: -- of those photos.

I've done a lot of work on cancer research. This was a more current one, Leader Kevin McCarthy. It must have been something I was, I guess, it had to do with the deal to prevent the government shutdown. Not the shutdown, reneging on the debt, the national debt, the deal we made.

DOJ -it probably had to do with her, stuff she's doing for abused women. Genealogy -- I got a lot of genealogy stuff all around. Private Biden, 6 (indiscernible 1:00:13.6) 16 and 15, I don't know what that is.

DOJ -- DOJ ? I think it's DOJ.

(Indiscernible 1:00:23.3) could have been a guy that worked for me for many -- when I was senator. I may have to call him to ask him for some information and recollection. I really can't read some of the others. Can you read it for me (indiscernible 1:00:43.9)?

MR. HUR: Well, I think, for the second box, the very last photograph in the tab section, is probably the sharpest -- closest in.

MR. BAUER: Could you give me the number?

MR. HUR: I'm sorry. Bates 114.

MR. BAUER: Got it.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: 114.

[1:01:04.5] 1 MR. HUR: I think that's the clearest focus of the 2 -- and the closest in of those photographs. 3 MR. BAUER: May I ask, Rob, again, for the clarity 4 5 of record. MR. HUR: Yes. 6 7 MR. BAUER: Is the question whether he recognizes 8 the topics, or whether he recognizes these specific 9 documents? 10 MR. HUR: These specific documents. 11 MR. BAUER: Not so much the topics, but the 12 documents. 13 PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't remember --14 MR. HUR: Or, rather, I'm sorry, these specific files. 15 16 MR. BAUER: Oh, these specific files, okay. 17 MR. HUR: Yes. From the labels on the file 18 folders. 19 PRESIDENT BIDEN: Well, I remember -- you know, I 20 -- the Papal visit in 2015. I remember the -- Senator 21 Warren's stuff on Black Lives Matter. I was probably 22 categorizing that. VP speech on manufacturing, 23 manufacturers on 6/10. PRESIDENT BIDEN:

DOJ had another one.

So jumping off of the question --MR. HUR:

MR. HUR: -- that Bob just asked, which is -- let me ask a slightly different question, which is given, given it sounds like you're familiar with the topics that were addressed in some of these file folder labels, do you recall these as being files that DOJ kept for you at the Penn Biden Center?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't recall whether they But they're all stuff that I've worked -- I worked a hell of a lot on law enforcement, I worked on marriage equality. I'm the guy that got that changed. I worked on Papal visits. I can't read that one. Oh, and something about restoring the middle class. These are all subjects that related to -- most of them -- the moonshot with DOJ The Moon Shot was cancer, and DOJ was one of my docs who operated on me --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: But I don't know that for a fact.

MR. HUR: Understood.

MR. BAUER: So just to be clear, Rob. I'm really sorry. I'm trying to be good. I just want to make sure I understand. The question that you're asking -- I want you to ask the question, because you don't want me to ask the question. Is it, again, the -- recalling these specific files, or is the question recalling working on topics like this?

MR. HUR: The question was -- and I believe the President answered it quite clearly -- given his familiarity with the topics that are referenced on these file folder labels, does he recall whether these folders were ones that he had DOJ keep, and that he referenced at the Penn Biden Center after the end of his vice presidency?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: The subject matter, yes, like cancer, DOJ , Violence Against Women, the genealogy. I mean, there are things that were things that continued. And I still communicate with the Pope, you know what I mean. But is it constant? No. Anyway.

MR. HUR: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No. I mean, it could be mine, but I don't know.

MR. HUR: Okay. So now I want to jump over to Binder 3, so a whole separate binder. And towards --

MR. HUR: Okay? So behind the first blue tab, which is labeled "Eyes Only" folder, the first thing you should see is a document that's Bates labeled 20221201_WFO_0006, which is what we were just looking at, the outside of the envelope.

1 [1:08:56.3]

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Oh, that.

MR. HUR: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah, I got that.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Of the document itself?

MR. HUR: I'm sorry, sir, the contents of the envelope.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay.

MR. HUR: So let's go first to Tab A7. And you'll see there a number of pages. The first Bates label is 1B49A70001 followed by 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 through 10. What you're seeing there are a number of lined pages -- mostly, some of them aren't -- but with handwriting on them. If you'll just take a moment to look through those pages. Once you're done, I'll ask you if you -- if this is your handwriting on these pages?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: It looks like my handwriting.

MR. HUR: I'm sorry, I didn't hear the last -PRESIDENT BIDEN: I do not recall specifically PRESIDENT BIDEN: These are all in 2014?

MR. HUR: They're dated 2013 -- this one's dated 2013, behind Tab A6.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: The one behind A5 is 2014?

MR. HUR: Is dated 2014, yes.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay. Got it.

MR. HUR: So, let's look at some other documents. We're going to go back to Binder 1; that may refresh your recollection on these. So, our understanding, sir, is that, at this time, the Obama administration was addressing the subject of a potential nuclear deal with Iran. There --

1 |

MR. HUR: -- were some members of Congress who were considering their own views about such a deal with Iran, and whether Congress should impose additional sanctions, which the Administration determined would have interfered with the Administration's negotiations about the nuclear deal.

So we understand that you, sir, were enlisted as part of the Obama administration's effort to speak with members of Congress about the Iran deal, and to encourage them not to impose, as Congress, additional, or new sanctions on Iran. So that's our understanding as to what was going on at the time.

So, let me show you some photographs behind Tab

24. And these will be a series of photographs. It starts with the second one behind that -- second one in that section. The first Bates is 1B001_01223070_0001.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okav.

MR. HUR: There's some other photos here, 1223174, 1223084.

MR. HUR: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I would often have breakfasts like this on a whole range of issues. I'd bring senators down.

The bad joke is, with President Obama, I would always say to him, Mr. President, all politics is personal. For example, even my staff wondered why the hell I'm calling Cory Booker to make sure he's safe. Why are you calling him? Because (indiscernible 1:19:56.4) because I called when they were in, in -- Jesus -- in Israel. I called him when they got home because I wanted him to know I cared about him. It matters. So what I would do lots of times is bring senators to the house to discuss whether they were with me on a proposal, even though I knew what I wanted to do, and say, what do you think? What kind of input -- because to get them bought into, whatever.

MR. BAUER: I just wanted to mention, I think we're at 5 hours.

MR. HUR: Is that right?

MR. BAUER: It's 2 -- in fact, we're at 5 hours and 1 minute. Not that I -- not that we're keeping time on this.

MR. HUR: If you wouldn't mind, if you could indulge us to just finish this line of questioning.

MR. BAUER: How much more time do you think you would need?

MR. HUR: I really don't think I'll need more than 10 or 15 minutes on this.

MR. BAUER: I couldn't hear.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: 10 or 15 minutes.

MR. HUR: Yes, sir.

SISKEL: I mean, are you talking about the 8 ones in that envelope? 9 MR. HUR: Yes. 10 MR. SISKEL: And that's it? 11 MR. HUR: If that's, if that's the end of stoppage time --12 13 MR. SISKEL: Well, we're already at our stoppage time. 14 15 MR. BAUER: We do have a stoppage time, and we're 16 at it. Ed, you want to shut it off for a minute? 17 MR. SISKEL: Sure. 18 MR. BAUER: Mr. President, just take 2 seconds. 19 MS. COTTON: No, I subtracted breaks. 20 MR. KRICKBAUM: Can I say one word to you guys? 21 MR. BAUER: Of course. Why don't we step out in the hall? 22 23 MR. KRICKBAUM: Sure. It'll be, It'll be very quick. 24 25 MR. BAUER: We'll be very quick, Mr. President --

MR. BAUER: -- I apologize.

(Track 231009_1245 ends)

(Track 231009 1409 begins)

MR. HUR: We're back from a brief break. If we could -- I have a few questions again about these photographs here. There's one with you with your arm around Lindsey -- Senator Lindsey Graham.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: They're the old days. (Laughter)

MR. HUR: Just for Bates number -- Bates number purposes, 3174. So there, you're holding a clutch of documents in your left hand that appears to include a manila envelope. And then the prior page that shows you seated around the breakfast table, Bates 3070, has some documents next to you, on the floor next to your chair.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yup.

MR. HUR: So I'm pretty sure I know what the answer to this is going to be, but the manila envelope that we saw a moment ago in another photograph that said "VP Eyes Only" at the top and bottom, that was recovered from Penn Biden Center, did you have that envelope, and the documents in it, with you during that breakfast?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I have no idea.

MR. HUR: Okay. So another question about the -FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

[0:01:15.8] MR. HUR: -- handwritten documents that we were looking at a moment ago, you appeared to recognize some of --PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah. MR. HUR: -- your handwriting --PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah. MR. HUR: -- on some of the pages. PRESIDENT BIDEN: Yeah. MR. HUR: Was the purpose of those notes to help prepare for your breakfast meeting with the senators about the Iran nuclear deal? I don't know, I didn't read the PRESIDENT BIDEN: substance of them, but it could have been notes after the meeting too. MR. HUR: Okay. If they're -- if it's my PRESIDENT BIDEN: handwriting. But I don't know. Okay. So let me ask you another MR. HUR: question that may refresh your recollection. So I apologize, we're going to have to, again, do some comparisons between things in Binder 1 and Binder 3. MR. BAUER: Which one are you going to? MR. HUR:

It's this one. 6 PRESIDENT BIDEN: That's in my office? 7 MR. HUR: Yes, sir. 8 MR. SISKEL: To clarify the record, your office as 9 Vice President? 10 MR. 2 MR. HUR: The second page, yes. And it's got 3 Bates 0002.

MR. BAUER: Could you bear with us one second, because I'm trying to follow it too.

MR. HUR: Yes.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Okay.

MR. HUR: So, if you take a look at the document there at Bates 0002 that we pulled from Binder 3, and you look real close at the photograph of the -- that Mr. McDonogh is holding with you in your West Wing office, that there appears to be some resemblance between those documents.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't think there's any resemblance. He has a whole section up there in the corner. He has one, two, three across. Take a look at that picture he's holding in his hand.

MR. HUR: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: There's no, there's no such -in other words, it goes all the way to the far right corner of the document. It may -- I don't know what relevance it is, but it doesn't look like the same document to me.

MR. HUR: And how about with respect to the remainder? But putting the stuff in the far right upper corner to the side, with respect to the other parts of that handwritten page. My only question is, does this --

MR. HUR: -- refresh your recollection as to the purpose of these handwritten notes relating to the Iran nuclear deal, or your breakfast meeting with the senators the following day?

MR. BAUER: Rob, just to be clear.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No.

MR. BAUER: I'm a little confused, because if they're not the same documents --

MR. HUR: Yes.

MR. BAUER: -- what would be the basis of refreshing his recollection?

MR. HUR: Well, if his response is that they do.

MR. BAUER: Okay.

MR. HUR: It doesn't refresh his recollection --

MR. BAUER: Okay.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, this doesn't refresh my recollection. But I'm sure the purpose of the meeting was to find out what the members of Congress thought about the Iran deal. I mean, that's why I'd been meeting with them about it. I assume that's why I was meeting with them about. I don't know what else -- it's contemporaneous, and I'm sitting down, and I'm having these discussions. And it says the people I'm meeting with are the people who would have interest. You know, Angus King and -- with the democrats. And --

[0:05:24.6]

2 PRESIDENT BIDEN: -- Bob Corker, Colin Kahl.

MR. HUR: . So after this breakfast, do you recall having other conversations in the following days with other members of Congress?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't remember anything in terms of the chronology, who I met, when and where. The situation with regard to whether or not to make any deal with Iran, I mean, with -- yeah, with Iran or not, has been an ongoing, up and down discussion for a long time, even to yesterday, before the Israeli thing. So it would not surprise me if the meetings -- if someone at that meeting -- you showed me a picture -- Corker, one of these guys said, well, what we're talking about with Afghanistan -- I mean, what we're talking about with Iraq --

MR. SISKEL: Iran.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Iran, because it's an ongoing discussion. And we were negotiating also at the same time, remember, with all our NATO allies on what we do, vis-à-vis, Iran, and whether or not they were on or not. So there was a lot of discussion. And it was not one of the subjects that I knew a lot about, but I wasn't -- I did not have a definitive view, I wasn't in making the case like I did in Iraq and other places.

MR. HUR: And after the end of your vice -FREE STATE REPORTING, INC.

Did you know that they were at the Penn Biden Center?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No. And I, I don't recall consulting anything having to do with any material with regard to Iran.

NSC, State, DOD

MR. SISKEL: And, sir, just to clarify, that's during your --

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Oh, that's just --

MR. SISKEL: That's (indiscernible 0:07:57.5) your presidency, which they're not interested in.

MR. HUR: Right.

PRESIDENT BIDEN: No, I know, but I want to give you context in my, my -- the depth of my engagement. And, anyway.

MR. HUR: Did you consult these materials during your work on Promise Me, Dad with Mr. Zwonitzer?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: I don't recall consulting any material per se, that was in a folder or anything, for Promise Me, Dad.

MR. HUR: Mr. President, do you have any idea how these documents relating to the Iran nuclear deal ended up in these files that were recovered from the Penn Biden Center?

PRESIDENT BIDEN: Other than when they were sent to the Penn Biden Center, they followed on my vice presidency, and it was one of the many subjects that were talked about in my vice presidency. So whatever materials taken from the vice presidency over to the -- over to Penn Biden Center, that's what -- I mean, there's a lot of things I'm sure that got to the Penn Biden Center that are no longer being actively discussed.

MR. HUR: Anything else on this? Okay. I think I came in under 10.
